Dear Ms. Gabizon,

I wish to thank you and your fellow signatories for your recent letter dated 31 October 2014 containing recommendations from the Women's Major Group for the Secretary-General's synthesis report on the post-2015 development agenda.

As preparations for the synthesis report get under way, I wish to underscore that it is the Secretary-General's utmost priority to respect and build on the work done by Member States. In this regard, I greatly appreciate your constructive suggestions for the transformational change that is necessary to tackle inequalities, promote rights and ensure development in harmony with nature.

I continue to count on your advocacy and mobilization support as the United Nations accompanies the efforts of Member States towards a bold yet practical outcome to achieve sustainable development and ensure a life of dignity for all.

Thank you for sharing this response with your fellow signatories.

Yours Sincerely,
