

Preliminary Programme

“What has Gender ... got to do with Chemicals?”

Strengthening Gender Policies for a toxic-free planet

Tuesday, 5 Dec 2017

12:00 - 14:00 (2PM)

Venue: “Green Tent”

UNEA 3

UN Campus, Nairobi

| | |
|----------|---|
| 12:00 | Arrivals, Registration, Lunch Reception |
| 12:15 | Opening by the Moderator and introduction of the organisers and panellists |
| 12:30 | Film Première What has Gender got to do with Chemicals? Documentary film visits chemical and waste pollution areas and looks at best practices from a gender perspective in Nigeria and Senegal. The film is produced for the Basel, Rotterdam and Stockholm Convention secretariat. Presentation of the scoping studies in Nigeria and Indonesia, which were at the basis of the film production. |
| 12:50 | High-level panel discussion and key-note addresses “strengthening gender policies for a pollution free planet” Minister of State for the Environment, Nigeria (confirmed) Minister of Environment, Indonesia (invited) Dr. Rolph Payet, Executive Coordinator, Basel Rotterdam and Stockholm Convention Secretariat Dr. Priscilla Achakpa, WEP Nigeria Ms. Yuyun Ismawati, Balifokus, Indonesia |
| 13:30 | Conclusions from panel discussion for next steps on Gender and Chemicals Celebration of a new partnership on Gender, Women and Chemicals Ambassador of Sweden to UN Environment (tbc) Gender Focal Point, UN Environment Board member, International POPs Elimination Network (IPEN) |
| 14-14:30 | Lunch reception and closing |

BASEL CONVENTION

ROTTERDAM CONVENTION

STOCKHOLM CONVENTION

Women's Major Group
Creating a Just & Sustainable Future

BALIFOKUS

a toxics-free future